

As a licensed Amateur Radio Operator (WB9WHG), I believe that allowing HF radio transmission (PLC) over power lines would be a great detriment to emergency and normal HF radio operation in our communities. High speed internet and other telecommunications should be limited to other media, like telephone lines, fiber optic or cable TV, or satellite dishes.